Ramón and Alma Rodríguez

Nogales Baptist Seminary Director

FIELD

At the age of 17, Ramón felt God call him to full-time Christian ministry, so he registered at Seminario Bautista de Nogales (SEBANO), a theological institution of the Conservative Baptists in Mexico.

After graduating from seminary in 1978, he began serving as a missionary in Sonora, Mexico, where he planted two churches.

In 1983, Ramón felt the need to train other Mexican nationals for ministry, so he moved to Nogales, Sonora, and started teaching at the seminary. He also pastored one of the churches in Nogales.

In 2003 Ramón graduated in Business Administration from the Nogales Technologic Institute. After serving at the seminary for 21 years, in 2005 Ramón was appointed as the Executive Director of the seminary.

Ramón is developing a new strategy for the seminary to reach a greater number of students in the Nogales, Sonora and Norwest Mexico area. The extension program of the Nogales Baptist Seminary involves courses in different cities and great ministry in the prisons of Nogales.
