

Introducing . . .

Dalton & Camille Stephens

Church Planting - West Indian

FIELD

In 1996, Dalton moved from the West Indies to the United States, and in 1997 started working as assistant pastor at the City View Baptist Church in Brooklyn, New York. He served there for eight years, during which he made several mission trips to South Africa and the Caribbean.

In 2009 High View Baptist Church in Queens, New York was born. The church's goal is to reach men, women and children for Christ in this community. Dalton serves as pastor.

FAITH

Dalton came to know the Lord Jesus in 1983 and was called to the gospel ministry in 1986. God gave him a passion for souls, but he knew he needed to be equipped to serve effectively, so in 1986 he enrolled at Fairview Baptist Bible College, and spent four years doing the pastor's course.

He graduated in 1990, and immediately after graduation was called to the Springvale Baptist Church as its pastor. He also spent four years at Vineyard Baptist Church, both of which were in the West Indies.

Camille came to know the Lord because of her grandmother who took her to church with her. She was saved in February 1982.

FAMILY

Dalton and Camille met in 1984, and were married in 1986. The Lord has blessed them with six children.
